

An update from the Mori family:

Thank you and everyone for all the kind words and condolences.

It has come to my attention that there is some confusion with regards to who is invited to the wake. We would be most grateful and happy to see everyone interested in attending my father's wake and funeral. Some details that you may want to know that may or may not be on the website:

Wake at the Frank Patti Funeral Home, Fort Lee NJ

Friday, September 14, 5-8 PM

There will be a Buddhist service between 6-7 approximately

Funeral at the Frank Patti Funeral Home

Saturday, September 15, 10-12

There is a bus that departs GWB and stops across the street from the Funeral Home. There is also parking at the site.

On Saturday, after the funeral, there is a cremation at Montclair, NJ., which is 20-40 minutes (depends on traffic) away. We are expected there at 1:30 for a brief event. You are welcome to come, but we understand that many guests will elect not to attend this event.

Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

Mayumi Mori
